It's the season of giving. Why not consider a gift that will last a lifetime?

The Georgia Southern University Athletic Foundation (GSUAF) offers naming opportunities across campus. However, the Eagle Bollard Project, Paver Project and Locker Project are perfect for gift-giving. Each of these projects are comprised of an exclusive group of individuals and organizations who support the University's goal to position football as our marquee program and recruit the country's best student-athletes.

Eagle Bollard Project

Bollards frame the landscape in Erk Russell Plaza at the Ted Smith Family Football Center. Constructed of concrete, the limited number of bollards are approximately 19 inches in height, 22 inches in diameter and boast brass plaques 12 inches in diameter.

On the plaque, donors have the opportunity to inscribe up to 3 lines, each containing 20 characters and spaces.

Cost: A tax deductible gift of $5,000 to the Soaring to Victory Campaign.

Donors can either pay in full or can choose to pay $1,000 a year or $83.33 a month over 5 years.

Eagle Paver Project

Located at the feet of the Erk Russell statue in the Erk Russell Plaza are 12"x12" concrete pavers available to honor individuals or loved-ones, commemorate a special event or cheer on the Eagles.

On the paver, donors have the opportunity to inscribe up to 3 lines, each containing 20 characters and spaces.

Cost: A tax deductible gift of $2,500 to the Soaring to Victory Campaign.

Donors can either pay in full or can choose to pay $500 a year or $41.66 a month over 5 years.

Eagle Locker Project

Donors can personalize one of the 130 lockers located in the football team's locker room in the Ted Smith Family Football Center.

Cost: A tax deductible gift of $3,000 to the Soaring to Victory Campaign.

Donors can either pay in full or can choose to pay $600 a year or $50 a month over 5 years.

Contact the Athletic Foundation to purchase your gift.
